

FREE TRAINING ON REPRESENTING EMPLOYEES IN WAGE AND HOUR DISPUTES

Co-Sponsored by Civil Justice and the Public Justice Center

Friday, January 12, 2018 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

UM Carey Law School, Room 205

500 W Baltimore St, Baltimore, MD 21201

- Covering the basics of the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Maryland Wage and Hour Laws.
- Practical guidance for identifying and obtaining strong individual and class action wage theft cases.
- How to use fee-shifting statutes to generate fees while fighting for the little guy.
- How to use Civil Justice's new JusticeReferrals.org platform to easily find great wage and hour cases.

Speakers: Sally Dworak-Fisher - Wage Theft Attorney, Public Justice Center
David Rodwin - Employment Attorney, Public Justice Center
Joseph Mack - Executive Director, Civil Justice

Please register by e-mail to cmccully@civiljusticenetwork.org or by phone to Carrie McCully at (410) 706-1154